- All time blocks are three hour intervals. Reserved time blocks occur on the same day and time each week.
- Flexible Studio Time may be utilized at any time when the studio is available. It may be reserved on a first come first serve basis.

The Platinum Membership: Members receive one three hour weekend time block (the same day and time each week) reserved for them. Platinum members also receive one flexible three hour time block per week which they can use at any time as long as the studio is available. They will also have 24 hours a day 7 days a week access to the facility.

The Platinum Membership is designed to give members the benefit of conducting business on the weekends, which is a desirable time for their customers/models. The Platinum Membership also gives members one three hour flexible time block per week to use at any time they choose as long as the facility is available.

The Gold Membership: Members receive one weekday time block (the same day and time every week) reserved for them. Gold members also receive one flexible time block per week which they can use at any time as long as the studio is available. They will also have 24 hours a day 7 days a week access to the facility.

The Gold Membership is a more moderate price than the Platinum and it will most benefit members who choose to conduct their business during the week, as opposed to the weekend. Gold members also have one flexible time block per week to use at any time they choose as long as the facility is available.

The Silver Membership: Members receive one flexible time block per week which they can use at any time they choose, as long as the studio is available. They will also have 24 hours a day 7 days a week access to the facility.

The Silver Membership is the most economical package and gives members a chance to work in a professional facility on a modest budget. It is beneficial to members who may sometimes need studio space, but have no need for a weekly reserved time.
